As ~~I cannot~~ it is under contemplation to extend the road to the South of the present building, the vacant land that may be required for the purpose between the road and the site already allotted to the City Institute may be added as a recreation ground, instead of as a part of ~~or~~ a separate piece of land to the East of the Fort road as now applied for which ought to be reserved for their purposes 1/3/05

MG 16/6 14 There can be no doubt that the Members of the Institute have erected a decent building on the site granted to them in February 1904 and are naturally desirous of having a recreation ground attached to the Institute as promised in the order of 16th Feby 1904. The ground now marked out on the plan viz 1 acre 2 & 12 guntas + 24 guntas to be eventually acquired and made over, can not be said to be much more than their requirements. There seems to be some difficulty in locating it.

Temple southein the Compound of the Institute A small plot of ground as marked by me in black pencil on the tracing may therefore be marked off all round the Temple & the rest made over to the Institute free of cost. This would slightly reduce the area, say by about 3 or 4 guntas, which cannot be helped. The question of making over to the Temple the portion so marked off may however be reserved till information as to the origin, endowments &c of the Temple is separately furnished.

As sacrifices of animals frequently take place in front of the Temple & within sight of the high ground of the main road leading to the Bangalore Palace, it seems necessary that the managers should be called upon to take steps to exclude such sacrifices from public view

R e a d :--

Govt. Order No.3018-21---L.F.64-03 dated the 16th February 1904, sanctioning the free grant of a site on the Fort Glacis to the Bangalore City Institute, and promising to consider favourably the question of granting in addition a sufficient extent of land on the opposite side of the Fort-Basavangudi Road as a recreation ground, in case a decent building be erected on the site first given.

Letter No.2 dated the 21st Febry. 1905 from the Hony.Secretary of the Bangalore City Institute, intimating that a suitable building has been constructed on the site granted in the above Order, and requesting that the site opposite thereto may, as promised, be given over to the Institute, as the members of ~~which~~ are in need of additional grounds for recreation purposes.

Correspondence ending with Letter No.480 dated the 12th June 1905 from the President of the Municipal Commission, Bangalore City, forwarding a tracing showing the sites in question, the adjoining roads, and other particulars, and reporting that, at a personal interview between himself and the Executive Committee of the Institute, the latter agreed to his proposal to take the extent of land (CDEF in the tracing) available at present and the .24 acre to the south of it whenever acquired, in lieu of the land to the east of the Fort-Basavangudi Road.

ORDER THEREON 1834-6

8-21-8 05

The President of the Municipal Commission recommends that, in lieu of the site to the east of the Fort-Basavangudi Road originally applied for, the plot of ground to the south of the present site of the Bangalore City Institute and adjoining the same, be made over to the Institute. This plot is marked CDEGJK in the tracing, and covers approximately 1·36 acres, of which the portion CDEF (measuring 1·12 acres) is available at once, and the rest (·24 acre) after its acquisition in connection with the extension of the Lal Bagh Road. It is also reported that the Executive Committee of the Institute have agreed to take the plot in question in lieu of the one first promised. The proposed arrangement commends itself to Government, and is accordingly sanctioned.

2. It is however understood that there exists a small temple on a portion of the site to be granted to the Institute. In order to obviate future inconvenience to all concerned, a small extent of ground on all sides of the temple should be marked off measured and excluded from the site before it is made over to the Institute. Separate orders of Government obtained in due course with regard to the assignment of the portion so marked off to the temple. In doing so, the President will ascertain and report under what circumstances the temple in question came to be built on the Fort glacis, and what endowments (State or private) it enjoys. — The managers of the institution should also be called upon to take steps to screen from public view the animal sacrifices that are understood to be frequently offered on the spot.
